Tracy, Rooney in 'Men of Boys Town'

The unforgettable performances given by Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney in "Boys Town" not only won them an Academy Award, but the plaudits of movie-goers throughout the world. Now the distinguished co-stars are to be seen again in a sequel to the earlier hit, "Men of Boys Town," which brings you new drama and heart-stirring episodes in the lives of Father Flanagan, founder of the famous home, and of the boys who come there homeless and defeated. The new picture opens Sunday at the Sequoia Theater.

John B. Hughes Set For Lecture in S. F.

Residents of the San Francisco vicinity will have a chance to see and hear in person John B. Hughes, America's ace radio commentator. He is booked for two lectures at the Curran Theater, San Francisco, next Wednesday. His subject will be "The Crisis—Who's Next?" The afternoon lecture will be at 3:15 and the night lecture at 8:30.

Hughes, long an authority on international affairs, has thrilled millions of radio listeners by his timely comments on world affairs. In selecting his subject for the forthcoming personal appearances, Hughes has done so in order to offer his hearers some startling information. Exclusive news outlets, even through the strictest of censorship, have made it possible for him to become known as the man of "beats." On a number of occasions he has been able to bring information not known generally. He is better informed on the causes and the possibilities of the present crisis in the Pacific than any other American commentator. He revealed details of the negotiations for the Russian-Japanese non-aggression treaty 10 weeks before the signing of that agreement, which startled the entire world. He promises to reveal further facts on this Pacific "volcano." He has also made an intensive study of the progress of American war productions and the important part of our great industries are now playing in the armament of our forces and the help that is being given to England.

J-M FAMILY ALBUM

All True Americans—Employees of the Packing Department at the Manville, N. J., J-M plant, presented the department with a large American flag at the recent ceremony shown above. Each member contributed to buy the flag. A posted notice, signed by members of the department reads: "During these troubled days abroad, we, the undersigned employees, desire to present to the Packing Department the Flag of our Country to be placed in the building as a reminder at all times that we are true Americans working for an American company."

work, and many departments are working 24 hours a day, seven days a week. They are busy as bees, making materials for airplanes, tanks, battleships, field kitchens, barracks, gas masks and explosives. No lag in the defense program here! We also make many materials used by many industries which produce

NO LEAKS HERE

In recent tests conducted at Johns-Manville Research Laboratories at Manville, New Jersey, J-M Cedargrain shingles stood up under the equivalent of 2,970 years of New York rainfall without being damaged. That period of time would date back to the Egyptian pyramids or the building of King Solomon's temple!

Defense Holds J-M Spotlight in 1941

The national defense program held the spotlight on Johns-Manville operations during the latter part of 1940 and will do so well into this year, according to year-end reports of J-M officials. Other highlights of these reports include: Apart from working at top speed to keep production moving along with the defense program, J-M was able to hold prices in check in 1940 and will try to do so in 1941 even though taxes and other costs are increasing. That's why constant efforts are being made to reduce waste and increase efficiency. Defense requirements come first, J-M executives insist. But they do not want to lose sight of the time when our country will have adequate defenses and defense spending stops. J-M officials are doing what they can to plan ahead for that day when industry will have to take up the slack.

Most of Johns-Manville's 17 plants are busy on some kind of defense

Helen Traubel Billed For S. F. Appearance

SAN FRANCISCO—Helen Traubel, prima donna Wagnerian soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co., whom critics have acclaimed as "one of the two great women's voices of the age," comes next on the concert series of the San Francisco Opera Association. She is billed to appear at the Opera House next Tuesday night.

This will be Miss Traubel's first concert appearance in San Francisco. She has chosen a program that will make the concert a memorable occasion. The opening number will be Beethoven's "Gottes Macht und Vorsehung." Two other numbers by the same composer follow: "Wonne der Wehmuth" and "Ich liebe dich!" "Elsa's Dream" from "Lohengrin" is also on the program. A group of songs by Schubert and Richard Strauss will close the first half.

The versatility of her artistry is illustrated in the second half of the program. This will include "Elegie," Rachmaninoff; "Song Without Words" (Duet in A Flat), Mendelssohn; "Voi lo sapete" from "Cavalleria Rusticana," Mascagni; Negro Spirituals, arranged by H. T. Burleigh; "Sea Shell," Carl Engel; "A Memory," Blair Fairchild; "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind," McNair Ilgenfritz. Tickets are on sale at Sherman Clay & Co.

J. E. Morrish Named Bank Group Treasurer

J. E. Morrish of Redwood City, vice president and manager of the First National Bank of San Mateo County, was elected treasurer of a newly-organized group of the California Bankers Association at a meeting of the members at the Commercial Club in San Francisco Saturday. The new organization will be known as Group 6 and will include all the banks in San Mateo, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco and San Joaquin Counties.

Other officers elected at Saturday's meeting were: President, Carl F. Wentz, Oakland; vice presidents, R. L. Eberhardt, Stockton, and R. D. Brigham, San Francisco; secretary, J. F. McGrath, San Francisco.

Big Basin To Remain Free of Liquor Places

SAN MATEO—There will be no alcoholic beverages sold in the Big Basin area, according to an announcement made here by Commissioner George R. Reilly, member of the State Board of Equalization for this district. The board member said this widely-used recreational area of Santa Cruz County will be protected in accordance with the wishes of the many families making their summer homes there.

A. D. Sgarlato, formerly of Redwood City, who applied for a license under the name Big Basin Lodge, has withdrawn his application. When Sgarlato learned of the protests he withdrew it. The scheduled hearing on the application has been cancelled and Big Basin will continue free from beverage places, Commissioner Reilly added.

Gymkhana Club Plans Annual Horse Show

SAN MATEO — With more than $1000 in cash prizes and trophies ready to be awarded to the owners of some of California's finest horses, the Gymkhana Club of San Mateo was preparing today for its Twelfth Annual Horse Show to be held at its San Mateo riding ring, May 30, 31, and June 1.

Forty-one different classifications are open, ranging from thoroughbred to sturdy Western trail horses, according to Mrs. Gerald Gray, committee chairman.

Highlights of the show will be a touch and out sweepstake featuring jumps, slips and speedy maneuvering, Mrs. Gray said.

There will be special classifications for students of the San Mateo Junior College. A "family class" also has been arranged. Entry blanks and information may be obtained at the Gymkhana Club, West Twentieth Ave., Phone San Mateo 2567 and 3905.

County Librarians Hold Meeting Here

Custodians of the branches of the San Mateo County Library and librarians of affiliated public libraries in the county met at the County Library on Middlefield Rd. in Redwood City Saturday.

John D. Henderson, field representative of the California State Library, discussed the relationship of the state library to the county libraries. Mr. Henderson, as president of the California Library Association, also described the activities of that association.

Miss Edna Broner, librarian of the South San Francisco Public Library, told how that library is serving men engaged in defense industries in South San Francisco and discussed the books which are being used by them in their work.

Miss Mary Potts of England, now attending schools in Burma, talked on their evacuation from war zones in the British Isles.

YMCA News

The Happy-Go-Lucky Club under the leadership of W. Earl Whitaker met last night. The regular ritual was said and business conducted after which James P. Hagen, manager of the Bank of America, gave a short talk explaining workings of the bank. Glenn Snyder, executive secretary of Peninsula Branch, YMCA, spoke briefly. After the meeting games were conducted by Walter Harrington and Charles McClute. Seventeen members and two visitors were present.

Parkman Sponsoring Traffic Court Bill

To systematize the handling of traffic law violations in certain counties, Sen. Harry L. Parkman of San Mateo is sponsoring a bill which would permit the designation of one justice court as the county traffic tribunal.

be launched on May 8, it was announced today by company officials.

All traffic cases might be assigned to the court but offenders would still have the right to seek a change of venue, according to the measure. A person arrested for a traffic violation might also exercise the right of going immediately before the justice of the peace nearest the place of arrest. The measure would apply to counties having a population of more than 70,000 and in which no municipal court has been established.

Two bills of interest to school teachers are being handled by Senator Parkman. One provides that when disbursements from the Teachers' Retirement Fund are greater than receipts, the difference shall be made up from the general funds of the state. The second bill, which has been adopted by the senate, reduces the fee for a life diploma from $5 to $3.

HEARING CONTINUED

Three Chinese accused of kidnapping and robbing a couple in a parked car in North Palo Alto Apr. 6 will appear before Judge E. I. McAuliffe May 1 at 10:30 a.m. for preliminary hearing. The men obtained a continuance of their hearing, which had been scheduled yesterday. They were being held in the county jail in lieu of $500 cash bail or $1000 bond.
